

EXPORT LICENCE

Open General Export Licence (Military Goods: UK Forces deployed in non- embargoed destinations) dated 1st December 2005 granted by the Secretary of State.

The Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by article 12 of the Export of Goods, Transfer of Technology and Provision of Technical Assistance (Control) Order 2003^(a) ("the Order"), hereby grants the following Open General Export Licence:

Licence

1. Subject to the following provisions of this Licence:
 - a) goods, software or technology specified in Part A of Schedule 1 hereto, other than any goods, software or technology specified in Part B, may be exported or transferred by electronic means from the United Kingdom, to any UK armed forces, or the MOD notified civilian contingent, in a country specified in Schedule 2 hereto;
 - b) goods, the export of which would otherwise be prohibited by article 4 of the Order, may be exported from the United Kingdom to any UK armed forces, or the MOD notified civilian contingent, in a country specified in Schedule 2 hereto;
 - c) any person may transfer by any electronic means any dual-use software or technology, the transfer of which would otherwise be prohibited by article 7 of the Order, to a country specified in Schedule 2 hereto;

(a) S.I. 2003/2764, as last amended by S.I 2005/468

- d) any person may transfer, by any means, any software or technology, the transfer of which would otherwise be prohibited by Articles 8 or 9 of the Order, where that software or technology is intended for use in a country specified in Schedule 2 to this licence;
- e) any person may provide technical assistance, the provision of which would otherwise be prohibited by Article 10 of the Order, to any person or place in a country specified in Schedule 2 to this licence; and
- f) any goods may be exported, technical assistance provided or software or technology transferred in a manner identified in paragraph 1(a) to (e) to any warship or Naval Auxiliary of the United Kingdom or Government Service ship provided the vessel confirms it is not in a destination specified in Schedule 2, Part (i) to this licence ; provided that the exporter, transferor or provider, as the case may be, knows at the time of export, transfer or provision that the goods, software or technology or technical assistance are for the sole use of UK armed forces, or the MOD notified civilian contingent.

Exclusions

- 2. This Licence does not authorise the export of goods, provision of technical assistance or transfer, by any means, of software or technology:
 - (1) if the exporter, provider or transferor has been informed by a competent authority, or is otherwise aware, (e.g. from information received from the manufacturer), that they have been classified by the Ministry of Defence as having a protective marking of CONFIDENTIAL or above, unless :
 - a. the exporter has, where appropriate, a current written Security Transportation Plan and has obtained a written letter of clearance issued by MOD DPA Security Advisor's Office which relates to all "Goods" associated with the particular export of the protectively marked "Goods" which are CONFIDENTIAL or above;

- b. Technology in tangible form protectively marked CONFIDENTIAL or above is exported against procedures laid down in the UK Government Manual of Protective Security appropriate to the grading of the material.

(2) In the case of intangible technology transfers it is prohibited to export technology with a protective marking of Restricted or above unless:

- i) the transmission medium is protected by approved encryption appropriate to the protective marking of data, and
- ii) the exporter holds a clearance from a government accreditation authority which can be produced to the Compliance Officer.

Conditions and Requirements

3. The exporter shall comply with the following conditions and requirements-

(1) not later than 30 days after an exporter, provider or transferor first exports goods, provides technical assistance or transfers, by any means, software or technology under this Licence, he shall inform the Secretary of State, specifying his name and the address at which copies of records of his export or transfer or provision may be inspected under condition 3(2) below;

(2) the exporter, provider or transferor shall maintain the following records under this Open General Export Licence:

- (i) the date of the export, provision or transfer;

(ii) the name and address of the individual to whom, or the Unit or ship to which, the goods, technical assistance or software or technology are being exported, provided or transferred;

(iii) a description of the goods exported, technology transferred or technical assistance provided;

(iv) MOD DPA Security Advisor's Office clearance letter referred to in 2(4) above (in the case of CONFIDENTIAL "Goods" or above);

(v) where appropriate the Operational Name/Code;

(vi) Unit (including UIN where known) that the goods are being exported to;

(vii) where appropriate a copy of UOR/MOD Contract, and any such records shall be maintained for at least three years after the date of the relevant export or transfer or provision and the exporter, transferor or provider shall permit the records to be inspected and copied by any person authorised by the Secretary of State;

(3) official and commercial export documentation accompanying the export of goods or non-electronic transfer of software or technology shall include a note stating that "the goods are being exported under the Open General Export Licence (Military Goods: UK Forces deployed in non-embargoed destinations)" and shall be presented to an officer of HM Revenue and Customs if so requested;

(4) the exporter, transferor or provider shall notify the Secretary of State of any change in the address referred to in paragraph 3(1) above within 30 days of that change.

Prohibitions not affected by this Licence

4. This Licence shall not affect a prohibition or restriction in any legislation other than the legislation under which this licence was issued.

Interpretation

5. For the purpose of this Licence:

(a) "the Act" means the Export Control Act 2002^(d)

(b) "entry" includes part of an entry;

(c) "MOD notified civilian contingent" means civil servants, deployed contractors, and those contractors with UK Government defence contracts including Contractors on Deployed Operations (CONDO);

(d) unless the context otherwise requires, any other expression used in this Licence shall have the meaning it has in the Act or the Order.

Entry into Force

6. This Licence shall come into force on 2nd December 2005.

7. The Open General Export Licence (Military Goods: UK Forces deployed in non-embargoed destinations) dated 24 January 2005 is hereby revoked.

Explanatory Note (This Note is not part of the Licence)

1. This licence has been amended by adding Uzbekistan to the list of excluded destinations in Schedule 2(i). This follows the recent adoption of an arms embargo on Uzbekistan.

2. This Open General Export Licence permits, without further authority but subject to certain conditions, the export of certain goods, software or technology (including their transfer by electronic means) to UK armed forces, or the MOD notified civilian contingent. In particular it covers export and transfer of military goods referred to in article 3 and 6 of the Order and specified in Schedule 1 to the licence, to the countries specified in Schedule 2; the export of goods referred to in Article 4 of the Order to countries specified in Schedule 2; the transfer by electronic means of dual-use software or technology to a country specified in Schedule 2; the provision of technical assistance for “any relevant use” to a country specified in Schedule 2; and the transfer of software and technology by any means where the transferor has reason to believe it is intended for use in a country specified in Schedule 2; and the supply of goods and services to any warship or Naval Auxiliary of the United Kingdom or Government Service ship. This licence does not authorise the export or transfer of dual-use goods the export or transfer of which is prohibited by the Council Regulation (EC) No.1334/2000.

3. The goods, software, technology or technical assistance may only be exported, provided or transferred under this Licence if certain conditions are satisfied. These include that the goods, software or technical assistance are intended for UK Forces, or the MOD notified civilian contingent including CONDO; and if the goods, software, technology or technical assistance are classified as CONFIDENTIAL or above prior written approval for the export, provision or transfer must have obtained in writing approval from the Ministry of Defence.
