^(b) S.I. 2003/2764; as amended

written letter of clearance issued by MOD DE&S Security Advisers Office which relates to all goods associated with the particular export of the protectively marked goods which are CONFIDENTIAL or above.

Conditions and Requirements

3 The authorisation in paragraph 1 above is subject to the following conditions:

- (1) before any exporter, provider or transferor first exports goods, under this licence, he shall have informed the Secretary of State of this intention under this licence, specifying the name of the exporter, provider or transferor and the address at which copies of the records of their export or transfers may be inspected under condition 3(4) below;
- (2) the exporter must obtain prior to making any export pursuant to this licence written approval from the Mission, in the form of a Purchase Order, issued against an eligible United Kingdom Government Contract which identifies the goods and consignee.
- (3) on making any export of goods, the exporter shall produce to an officer of HM Revenue and Customs, if so requested, documentary evidence in the form of a copy of the current written approval referred to in sub-paragraph 3(2);
- (4) the exporter, provider or transferor shall, in addition to provisions of sub-paragraph 3(1) above, maintain records of;
 - (i) date and destination of each export, provision or transfer;
 - (ii) name and address of the consignee to whom the goods, are being exported;

- (iii) MOD DE&S Security Advisers Office clearance letter referred to in 2(2)(a) above (in the case of CONFIDENTIAL goods or above);
 - (iv) original written Mission approval that the goods supplied are in relation to the contract referred to in 3(2) above, Any such records shall be maintained for at least four years after the date of the relevant export or transfer and the exporter shall permit the records to be inspected and copied by any person authorised by the Secretary of State.
- (5) official and commercial export documentation accompanying the export of goods or non-electronic transfer of software or technology shall include a note stating that "the goods are being exported under the Open General Export Licence (Export of non-lethal Military and Dual-Use goods: to UK Diplomatic Missions or Consular Posts)" and shall be presented to an officer of HM Revenue and Customs if so requested; and
- (6) the exporter shall notify the Secretary of State of any change in the address referred to in 3(1) above within 30 days of that change.

Prohibitions not affected by this Licence

4. Nothing in this Licence shall affect any prohibition or restriction on the exportation or carrying out of any other act with respect of the exportation or transfer of any goods concerned under, or by virtue of, any enactment other than a prohibition or restriction in the legislation under which this licence was issued, as set out in the licence itself.

Interpretation

5. For the purpose of this Licence:

- (a) "the Act" means the Export Control Act 2002^(b)
- (b) a "Customs Free Zone" is a part of the territory of a country where any goods introduced are generally regarded, in so far as import duties and taxes are concerned, as being outside the Customs territory of that country, and are not subject to the Customs controls that would otherwise apply;
- (c) "eligible UK Government Contract" means a contract which is supported by a Purchase Order issued by a UK Diplomatic Mission for the supply of goods for the exclusive use of HMG personnel;
- (d) "entry" includes part of an entry;
- (e) unless the context otherwise requires, any other expression used in this Licence shall have the meaning it bears in the Act or the Order as appropriate. .

Entry into force

6. This Licence shall come into force on 11th June 2007.
