

The role of the Climate Change Projects Office (CCPO) is to act as the UK Government's primary contact for business on climate change activities under the Kyoto Mechanisms (Clean Development Mechanism, Joint Implementation and International Emissions Trading) and the wider international carbon market. The CCPO supports and promotes UK private sector involvement in these activities, including through the organisation of trade missions and similar events.

Oliver Sinclair
Business Engagement
Manager

0207 215 1837
oliver.sinclair@berr.gsi.gov.uk

Responsibilities:

- Organisation of overseas JI, CDM (China, Gulf States & south-east Asia) & Carbon Market trade promotion missions;
- Co-ordination of CCPO activities in Annex I countries, e.g. USA,;
- Organisation of annual stakeholder meeting & writing of annual CCPO report.

Vicky Elliott
Head of the CCPO

0207 215 1608
vicky.elliott@berr.gsi.gov.uk

Responsibilities:

- Overall management of the CCPO;
- Management of the CCPO work programme – ensuring it meets stakeholders needs;
- Leading trade missions & other events to promote the CCPO & the Carbon Market;
- Whitehall liaison - feeding into UK policy negotiations affecting Kyoto Mechanisms.

Tom Bouwens
Projects Adviser

0207 215 3748
tom.bouwens@berr.gsi.gov.uk

Responsibilities:

- Contributing to all aspects of CCPO's trade mission programme, including business opportunity identification, providing technical expertise and leadership of delegations;
- Advising companies on technical aspects of project enquiries relating to Kyoto Mechanisms.

Hannah Greig
Business Communications
Manager

0207 215 1321
Hannah.greig@berr.gsi.gov.uk

Responsibilities:

- Organisation of overseas CDM (except China, Gulf States & south-east Asia) & Carbon Market non-Annex I trade promotion missions;
- Management, development and promotion of the CCPO website;
- Production and management of CCPO business guides.