

EXPORT LICENCE

Open General Export Licence (Computers) dated

1 May

2004 granted by the Secretary of State.

The Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by Articles 6(2) and (4) of Council Regulation (EC) No. 1334/2000 ("the Regulation")^(a) and Article 12 of the Export of Goods, Transfer of Technology and Provision of Technical Assistance (Control) Order 2003^(b) ("the Order"), hereby grants the following Open General Export Licence:

Community Licence

1. This is a general export authorisation under the terms of Article 6(2) of Council Regulation (EC) No.1334/2000. This authorisation, in accordance with Article 6(2) of that Regulation, is valid in all Member States of the European Community and is a Community Licence for the purposes of the Order.
2. Subject to the provisions of this Licence, items specified in Schedule 1 hereto, may be exported from the United Kingdom, or from any other Member State by any person established in the United Kingdom, to any destination in any country specified in Schedule 2 hereto.

Exclusions

3. This Licence does not authorise the export of items;
 - (1) if the exporter has been informed by a competent authority of the Member State where he is established that they are or may be intended, in their entirety or in part-

^(a) O.J.L159,30.6.00,p1, as last amended by Council Regulation (EC) No. 149/2003 (O.J.L30, 5.2.2003)

^(b) S.I.2003/2764, as last amended by S.I.2004/1050

- (a) for use in connection with the development, production, handling, operation, maintenance, storage, detection, identification or dissemination of chemical, biological or nuclear weapons or other nuclear explosive devices or the development, production, maintenance or storage of missiles capable of delivering such weapons; or
 - (b) for a military end use and the purchasing country or country of destination is subject to an arms embargo decided by a Common Position or Joint Action adopted by the Council of the European Union or a decision of the OSCE or imposed by a binding resolution of the Security council of the United Nations; or
 - (c) for use as parts or components of military items listed in the national military list that have been exported from the territory of the Member State concerned without authorisation or in violation of an authorisation prescribed by national legislation of that Member State;
- (2) if the exporter is aware that the items are intended, in their entirety or in part, for any of the uses referred to in sub-paragraph (1);
 - (3) if the exporter has grounds for suspecting that the items in question are or may be intended, in their entirety or in part, for any of the uses referred to in sub paragraph (1) (a), unless the exporter has made all reasonable enquiries as to their proposed use and is satisfied that the items will not be so used;
 - (4) to a destination within a Customs Free Zone;
 - (5) if their export is controlled by virtue of any entry in Annex I to the Regulation not specified in Schedule 1; or

Conditions and requirements

4. The authorisation in paragraph 1 is subject to the following conditions;
 - (1) Except in the case of an export of technology by telephone, fax or other electronic media, official and commercial export documentation accompanying the goods shall include a note stating that "These items are being exported under the Open General Export Licence (Computers)" and shall be presented to a Customs officer if so requested;
 - (2) Separate registration is required for use of this licence.

Prohibitions not affected by this Licence

5. Nothing in this Licence affects any prohibition or restriction on the exportation of any items other than under the Regulation or the Order, and this licence does not confer any licence or permission under, or for the purpose of, any other enactment other than the Regulation and the Order.

Interpretation

6. For the purpose of this Licence:
 - (a) a "Customs Free Zone" is a part of the territory of a country where any goods introduced are generally regarded, insofar as import duties and taxes are concerned, as being outside the Customs territory of that country, and are not subject to the Customs controls that would otherwise apply;
 - (b) "entry" includes part of an entry; and

- (c) unless the context otherwise requires, any other expression used in this Licence has the meaning as in the Regulation or the Order as appropriate.

Entry into Force

7. This Licence comes into force on 1 May 2004.
8. The Open General Export Licence (Computers) dated 27 January 2003 is hereby revoked.
